Well Known Physician Was Born in New York and Was Seventy-Six Years Dld.

Dr. Edwin Powell, a well known physician, living four miles southwest for years. The funeral services will be held at Oneida, Ill., on Wednesday, at the home of his brother, Harvey Powell. The body will be sent to Illinois Tuesday noon, accompanied by the other two brothers of the deceased, E. P. Powell and Rev. Lucene C. Powell, pastor of the M. E. church at Laclede, Mo. Dr. Powell had been in poor health for the past three years rom heart trouble.

Doctor Powell was born in Jefferson county, New York, October 12. 1834. His father, James Powell, was a dairy farmer by occupation. His mother was known in her maidenhood as Eveline Brainard. They were natives of the state of New York, where hey grew to maturity, received their educational training and were married. They joined the tide of emigraion setting in strongly for the west about the middle of the last century and came to Knox county, Hillinois, the parents of eight children, of which Dr. Edwin Powell was the third in order of birth.

Doctor Edwin Powell spent his early youth in Jefferson county, New York, and accompanied his parents to Knox county, Illinois. He received his primary education in the common schools of his native county, and in the fall of 1851 he entered the preparatory school of Knox cellege at Galesburg, remaining there two years, then entered Williams college at Wil-Indian superstition, if such remark liamstown, Mass., from which instituion he was graduated in the class of 1857. He later did some special work in that college, and took the mathematical honors of the class of 1873 He early in life decided to enter the medical profession, and after his turn to Illinois he began the study of nedicine in Chicago with his uncle, Dr. Daniel Brainard. He entered the United States Marine hospital at Chicago, as a resident pupil, his uncle teaching surgery at that institution, and was also president of Rush Med ical college of Chicago. Edwin Powell continued his medical studies there antil 1861, when, upon the breaking of the civil war, he offered his services, and, being well equipped as a surgeon and general practitioner, was appointed surgeon of the Seventysecond regiment Illinois Volunteer infantry, in which he rendered the most efficient service, for he made such a splendid record in college that upon his graduation from Rush Medical college he was appointed demonstrator in anatomy; and there was no better (Continued on page 2.)

FAIRFAX DEFEATED HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Fairiax, resolved to break even in their two games played at the Normal gymnasium, won from the Maryville high school basket ball team Saturday night by a 22-21 score. The Maryville high school team was confident of winning by a large score, but Fairfax, piqued by their defeat at the hands of the Normal team the night before played hard and spoiled the Maryville team's hopes. Fairfax was, of course a little more used to the gymnasium than the night before, but they won their game with excellent guarding. The goal throwing honors were even and Fairfax bested the high school in free throws by two points. A point awarded to the high school left Fairfax with a margin of one point for the

After his army experience Doctor Powell returned to Chicago and began practicing his profession, and was soon appointed professor of clinical surgery in Rush Medical college nearly all the clinical work being done at that time in the Cook county general hospital, of which institution Doctor Powell was one of the surgeons for a period of twenty years He remained in Chicago in the successful practice of his profession unti failing health caused him to seek the are air and quietude of the country and in the fall of 1888 he came to Nodaway county and purchased a farm about three miles southwest of Mary ville, upon which he located, and which has since been his home. Since coming to the county he has lived an eventful life, but his ability as a surgeon and practitioner has been known and recognized by medical men and laymen as well from the first; however, his attractive home, known as the "Hazelwood Farm," has claimed the major part of his attention, every thing about which indicates thrift and that a gentleman of refined tastes has its management in hand, having lived practically retired ever since coming

Doctor Powell was a member of Thomas post, G. A. R., at Chicago, and also a member of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, which is composed of officers of the Seventeenth army corps. He was a Mason. He was master of Oriental lodge, No. 33, A. F. and A. M., in Chicago in the years from 1869 to 1875. He was elected to the thirty-third degree of the Scottish Rite, an unusual honor. Religiously he belonged to St. James Episcopal burch at Chicago.

The play is by David Belasco, the well known playwright, and is a story of New York's Four Hundred in one of its annual charity balls. The story that has been woven from one of these great social events is clever, beautiful sweet and good, and promises to prove even more popular than "The Belle of Richmond," put on at the Empire a little over a year ago under Mrs. Wallis's direction.

Mrs. Wallis secured "The Charity Ball" from Mr. George E. Lesk of the Auditorium Stock company at Kansas City. Special scenery and wardrobe for the production of the play have also been secured, so that the play will be made as realistic as possible.

A much larger cast will be necessary to present this play than was used in "The Belle of Richmond." The cast will be filled in a few days for "There is no lie on the wrapper, There is no lye in the can."

BELLS TOLL FOR ARCHBISHOP RYAN

Funeral of Distinguished Prelate Will Be Held Thursday.

FINAL HOUR MOST IMPRESSIVE Reval Route 6. Farmers phone 25-16.

I Wish to Be Dissolved and Be With Christ" Were His Last Words. Death Causes Genuine Sorrow Among All Classes.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—The funeral of Archbishop Ryan will be held on Thursday, and it is expected to be at tended by practically all the leading clergy in the American hierarchy who can reach Philadelphia in time for the obsequies. The body will li in state at the cathedral and will b entombed back of the altar of the great church, beside those of Bishop Egan, Bishop Conwell and Archbishop Wood, who were his predecessor This was his wish. The diocesan con sulters met and began arranging the details of the obsequies.

Until a successor to Archbisho Ryan is appointed, which will not b for some time, the Rt. Rev. Edmond F. Prendergast, auxiliary bishop of Philadelphia, becomes adminstrator of the archdiocese. He was so design nated eleven years ago by Arch bishop Ryan: As administrator, Bishop Prendergast is temporarily investe with practically all the authority which belongs to an archbishop. Bish op Prendergast is sixty-eight years old.

Resigned to Death.

An hour before the end came Archbishop Ryan roused himself and mur-mured the dying words of St. Paul: I wish to be dissolved and be with

A few minutes after the prelate had passed away the deep-toned bell of the cathedral began tolling off seventy-nine strokes, one for each year of the archbishop's life, and the people of the neighborhood readily under stood what had taken place. The news of the archbishop's death was flashed to all parts of the city and in ever parish the bells of the Roman Catholic churches were tolled.

His death created genuine sorrow among all classes, without regard to creed or nationality. For years h had been a leading figure in the life of the city and his death, although not unexpected, came with a shock to even those who did not come in comtact with him in a religious way.

FEELS SELF GOING INSANE

Engineer on Rock Island Leaves Train at Belleville, Kan.

Belleville, Kan., Feb. 13.-There was an unusual occurrence in the Rock Island road yards in this city when John Robinson, an engineer from Phil ipsburg, climbed from his cab and asked the local officials of the company to secure another engineer to take the freight to Phillipsburg, as he feared he was going insane and would be no longer safe in charge of the en

Apparently Robinson was not mistaken in his idea about losing his mind. On arriving in Phillipsburg and greeting friends, his derangement became most acute, as while shaking hands with a friend he claimed to have had a combat with a lion down the road. Later he became violent and was taken to an institution.
